James Tate Grant	#YoungSkullMan	December 7, 2021 , Grant was charged in Wake County, North Carolina, with driving while impaired. According to the police report, at approximately 5:00 a.m., an officer from the Garner Police Department responded to a restaurant in response to a suicide threat. While pulling into the parking lot, the officer observed the Defendant pulling out in a silver car. The Defendant put his hands out of the window and attempted to get the officer's attention. The officer approached the Defendant, who stated, "They probably called on me," and further explained his involvement in the "January 6th incident." Because the Defendant appeared intoxicated, the officer initiated a DWI investigation. While being placed under arrest, Grant attempted to flee. He then dropped to the ground and stated something to the effect of "Just kill me now." He then stated, "It's over." In Grant's car, officers recovered an AR-15 assault rifle, 60 rounds of .223 ammunition, weapon accessories, and combat fatigues. The Defendant was arrested and transported to a local medical center. He was charged with Driving While Impaired, and his case remains pending in Wake County District Court.
William Wright Watson	#Insider1526	On Jan. 5, 2021, when Watson traveled to Washington, D.C, Watson was on pretrial release for the Alabama drug trafficking charged, and the conditions of his pretrial release forbade him from leaving the state. On January 11, 2021 , following Watson's return to Alabama, a writ of arrest was issued in relation to the violation of his bond conditions committed by traveling out of state without authorization on Jan. 5, 2021. Jonathan Munafo	#BoyInTheHood	In April 2021 , Munafo was arrested for the federal criminal case out of the WDMI. Munafo pleaded guilty to a felony violation of making Interstate Threatening Communications. Munafo has completed the imposed 24-month sentence of incarceration and will commence serving the three-year term of supervised release once he is released on this case. On January 5, 2021—Calhoun County, Michigan—While at a rest stop in Dunns, North Carolina, and over a three-hour time period, Munafo made approximately 143 threatening calls to 911 dispatchers in Calhoun County, Michigan. Munafo claimed that his name was "Yankee Patriot" and told a dispatcher that he was going to cut her throat. Munafo cited to the dispatcher accurate information regarding her home address and mortgage payment arrangements. Munafo's behavior and repeated calls also tied up the entire county emergency response system. A few of Munafo's quotes include: "Put a fucking cop on the phone now you stupid bitch, or it's going to go way worse for your family!" "Bitch, I'm gonna cut your throat. I'm gonna make you eat your fucking nose. I'm gonna hurt you bad for this. It won't be today, it won't be tomorrow, it'll be fucking soon though, you stupid cunt. Insurrection Act, I'm coming to your door first and it's public knowledge, you stupid, stupid bitch!" May 2021 and while in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Munafo was charged with a Prisoner Placing a Bodily Fluid on a Government Employee. This case was later dismissed.

Thomas Harlen Smith	#MississippiFlagGuy	Mar 24, 2021, Smith was arrested after he was indicted for embezzlement. A $657.20 demand letter was presented to Smith when he was arrested. Smith is accused of embezzling fuel by siphoning it out of a county-owned truck. Smith purportedly hid fuel containers on the side of the road so he could stop and siphon fuel from the truck into the containers. Smith would allegedly return to the location in a personal vehicle to retrieve the fuel he had siphoned. Investigators determined this scheme lasted from June 2019 to August 2019. Smith was arrested in November 2021 and convicted of Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor in May 2022. Smith was originally charged with Child Abuse without Bodily Harm, and the disturbing details are recounted in the PSR
Emily Hernandez		On Jan 5, 2022, Victoria Wilson was riding northbound on I-44 in a car with her husband, Ryan Wilson, as the pair drove toward their home in St. Clair. They were returning from Sullivan, where they had gone to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary. As the couple drove north, Emily Hernandez hit their vehicle on the front passenger side. Victoria “Vickie” Wilson was killed in the crash and Ryan Wilson was seriously injured. Hernandez has been charged with two counts of driving while intoxicated. A preliminary breath test indicated that her blood alcohol content was .2 percent, which is more than twice the legal limit to drive in Missouri.
Andrew Taake	#MacerInBlack	In May 2016, Taake was arrested for soliciting a minor online, a felony. According to the PSR, Taake initiated a conversation on a social media application with an undercover officer (“UC”) posing as a 15-year-old girl. After sending multiple explicit messages to the UC, Taake proposed an in-person meeting. The UC agreed and sent Taake an address. Before the meeting, Taake sent additional messages to the UC, including telling her that he “could go to jail” for what he was doing. Taake then went to the address the UC provided and was arrested. He was released on a $20,000 bond. His bond was revoked after his arrest and detainment in this case. The case remains pending. ARRESTED 2/6/2025 for these charges While detained at USP – Lewisburg during the pendency and detention in this very case, Taake was found guilty of fighting with another inmate in March 2022 and August 2022 and of giving/accepting money without authorization in December 2022. While detained at the D.C. Jail, Taake was written up for fighting with another inmate on December 14, 2023, less than two weeks before his change-of-plea hearing. Joshua Lee Atwood	#LeadPipeGuy	In 2021, just one month after committing his criminal conduct on January 6, Atwood was arrested, plead guilty to, and was sentenced to fines and costs for disorderly conduct in Hanover, Pennsylvania. According to Hanover Township Police Department records, Atwood was involved in an altercation with an officer during a traffic accident investigation. The investigating officer noticed a strong smell of marijuana emanating from Atwood’s vehicle, and Atwood claimed he did not know what marijuana smells like. Atwood proceeded to berate law enforcement as they attempted to relocate the involved vehicles and claimed officers were just “following orders like the Jews did when they entered concentration camps[.]” which prompted an argument between Atwood and a tow truck operator, who was Jewish. An officer was forced to break up the conflict. Police later secured a search warrant for the vehicle and discovered marijuana and a glass pipe. According to Chester Police Department records, on April 28, 2023, Atwood and a male victim working at a restaurant in Chester got into an argument. During the argument, Atwood grabbed a handful of cash bills out of the register, then attempted to leave with the money. When the victim attempted to stop Atwood, the two men got into a fight, during which Atwood dropped a concealed handgun. Atwood pulled out a concealed knife and stabbed the victim. Atwood then retrieved his dropped handgun and fled from the restaurant. In connection with the Chester incident, law enforcement checked Atwood’s address on record, but it appeared that no one was residing at that address. It took law enforcement several weeks to ultimately locate Atwood at a different address, and the effort required the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service Fugitive Task Force.

John D. Andries	#TrifectaTraitor	On February 25, 2022, Andries violated his conditions of release in this case when he was arrested for, inter alia, felony assault on a police officer. According to the police report, at approximately 11:37 pm on February 25, 2022, at Action Lounge & Billiards in Leonardtown, Maryland, Andries became intoxicated and reportedly pulled a female's hair and made "patrons uncomfortable." Andries was asked to leave the establishment. Andries became belligerent and made threats to staff who removed him from the premises. . Andries attempted to reenter the bar and was being held back by staff when police, who happened to be at the establishment for another incident, offered assistance to the staff in dealing with Andries. Police attempted to calm Andries and explain that if the staff wanted him removed, he needed to leave. Andries refused to comply with the police directives and attempted to reenter the bar. Police informed Andries to either go home or be arrested. Andries stated, "nope" and then pushed one of the officers in the chest, whereupon he was placed in handcuffs. Andries refused to cooperate with police, sat down while handcuffed, and had to be dragged and carried to a police vehicle. Once at the police vehicle, Andries refused to sit properly and laid so that his upper body was in the vehicle seat, but his lower body remained outside the vehicle. Id. Additional officers had to be summoned assist in bringing Andries under control. An officer told Andries that if he did not comply and sit in the vehicle, he would be tased. Andries refused to sit in the vehicle, whereupon the officer tased his leg. Undeterred, Andries still refused to sit in the vehicle and was tased a second time, but still did not enter the police vehicle. Officers determined they needed to call the jail's transport van to bring Andries to jail. While waiting for the van to arrive, Andries repeatedly kicked an officer and had to be restrained until the transport van arrived. He then refused to enter the van and had to be carried and placed inside by police. A search incident to lawful arrest found Andries was carrying a knife. According to court records, Andries was charged with felony assault in the second degree, misdemeanor disorderly conduct and misdemeanor resisting/interfering with arrest. In May 2022, Andries pled guilty to resisting arrest and was sentenced to 180 days jail, all suspended but 10 days, and two years unsupervised probation. On October 17, 2022, Andries was again arrested in Maryland on a charge of assault in the second degree for punching the complainant in the face. In that case, Andries's ex-girlfriend's new boyfriend claims Andries punched him in the face during a custody exchange of Andries's child. The charges remain pending, and a trial is scheduled for January 2023.

Mark Mazza		November 10, 2021 , conviction in Indiana. According to the police report on August 2, 2021 , the juvenile victim (a Hispanic boy aged 12) was attacked by Mazza after he and his friends (aged 11, 12 and 14) made derogatory comments about Donald Trump after seeing a large Trump flag hanging above Mazza's home. According to the report, Mazza responded to the victim and his friends that, Trump "kills n*s like you," which led to a verbal and physical altercation during which Mazza picked up the 12-year-old victim by the neck, slammed him on the ground and continued to hold him by the neck on the ground. The victim indicated he was unable to breathe for a period of the assault, which is not surprising given Mazza's size. The victim told officers when he was interviewed that he was still suffering pain on the back of his head. The report also indicates that Mazza told officers he got into the argument because the victim used the "N" word and he wanted them to stop. Mazza admitted to the police that he assaulted the juvenile and held him down by the neck on the ground.
David Paul Daniel	#ThirstyTrumper	September 20, 2024 Arrested in North Carolina for sexual exploitation of a minor and child pornography
Matthew Huttie	#Insider3080	Huttie has four other pending charges – all based on conduct that occurred after Jan 6, 2021
Landon Brady Manwaring	#Insider2727	On May 11, 2022 , Manwaring engaged in a sexually explicit online conversation with someone he believed to be a 13-year-old child but who was actually a state police officer pretending to be a child. According to the state charging document: The defendant told the child he would show her things like rubbing her clit and hitting her g-spot. The defendant then sent pictures of his penis and stated he would help her grab it and stroke it. He then sent a picture of his erect penis and asked [the child] if she would suck his penis. The defendant then agreed to meet up with the child. The underlying police report, which summarizes the chat records, reveals that it was Manwaring who continually pushed the sexually explicit conversation forward, asking the "child" questions like how old was the oldest boy she had ever kissed, if she had ever done more than kiss, if she masturbated, and if she would be willing to touch and suck his penis. When Manwaring arrived at the pre-arranged location, he was arrested by state law enforcement officers. He was originally charged with Enticing a Minor, in violation of Utah Crim. Code Ann. § 76-4- 401, as the top count but that charge was dismissed as a condition of Manwaring's plea agreement. On October 11, 2022 , the state court sentenced the defendant to five years of imprisonment, with all but 30 days suspended and credit for 10 days already served, followed by four years of probation, as well as a $750 fine. The court ordered that the defendant complete his jail sentence by December 31, 2022
Tyler Bradley Dykes	#GrayGoose	Feb 2023 he was arrested for Unite the Right Rally: Burning an object in a public place with the intent to intimidate. Dykes pleaded guilty to a state felony charge and was sentenced to 5 years in prison, with 4 1/2 years suspended. Jia Liu	#Insider405	Liu was arrested in February 2022 in the Eastern District of New York (EDNY). He was charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States Department of Health & Human Services, conspiracy to defraud the United States Department of Defense, and conspiracy to forge government writings. Liu and another individual conspired to steal and forge genuine covid-19 vaccination cards. They forged the stolen cards to indicate that unvaccinated persons received the covid-19 vaccination. Liu helped create and distribute these false covid-19 vaccination cards to military members to help them evade vaccination requirements. Liu and his co-conspirator distributed at least 200 false vaccination records and received thousands of dollars in exchange. As part of this scheme, Liu and his co-conspirator also created more than 70 false entries into immunization databases maintained by the New York State Department of Health. In May 2023 , Liu pled guilty to conspiracy to defraud the Department of Health and Human Services
Howard Richardson	#SwingerGramps	On September 23, 2021 , Richardson allegedly assaulted a motorcyclist riding down his street. The victim reported that Richardson “tackled him” off his motorcycle, causing a crash. The incident was witnessed by neighbors and captured on a surveillance camera located across the street from the event. The victim rider can be heard in the surveillance footage screaming out in pain. He was taken to the emergency room and treated for significant injuries including stitches to his eyebrow area, ligament damage to his fingers, and surgery for a “chunk taken out of his right leg.” About five minutes later, the victim’s brother came to assist, carrying a metal pipe or spike. He claimed Richardson “brandished a firearm” and so he dropped the pipe. A neighbor who witnessed the aftermath of the incident said he saw Richardson go to his truck, which was parked near the site of the crash, and pull out a knife with a 7-inch blade which he displayed to the brother. After the incident, Richardson spoke to the police; his account was significantly different from the victim’s and the neighbor’s. Richardson claimed he had been trying to slow down the motorcyclist and that the rider clipped him as he (Richardson) attempted to get out of the way. He also denied brandishing any weapon, including a firearm or a knife, during the incident. The video does not reflect any effort by Richardson to get out of the way; instead, he appears to lean into the rider’s path. Richardson was charged with aggravated assault and other crimes relating to this incident. He was arrested on October 25, 2021 .
Marcos Panayiotou		On December 2, 2021 , during the execution of the warrant for Panayiotou’s arrest and warrant for the search of his residence, law enforcement officers observed a H7K VP9 handgun on the nightstand next to Panayiotou’s bed. The handgun had a high-capacity, seventeen round magazine containing fourteen rounds. Panayiotou was then charged with a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:39-3J. Panayiotou was later convicted of Disorderly Conduct.
